

Godhead

The English Bible used the word/term 'Godhead' three times, Acts 17:29, Romans 1:20 and Colossians 2:9. In all three cases it is a DIFFERENT Greek word that is translated as 'Godhead', G2304 θεῖος theios, G2305 θειότης theiotes and G2320 θεότης theotes. These are all abstract words denoting divinity or divine, they have nothing to do with identifying or describing 'GOD' as three persons or a three headed 'God'. The term 'godhead' is a man made up word and is not a Biblical term. It just simply is not found in the scriptures of the OT or the NT. Again this term 'Godhead' is used to push the Trinity doctrine and it is a false translation.

We are the offspring of YHWH, NOT Yahusha and through the knowledge of YHWH and our Master Yahusha we can be partakers of that divine nature.

Conclusion:

The term 'godhead' is a made up word by men and used by the Trinitarians to try to prove the divinity of the Messiah. It is a lie. The three words translated as 'godhead' simply mean 'divine/divinity' and are abstract Greek words. To translate these words as 'godhead' is philosophy to its core. There is not ONE single word in the Greek or Hebrew text that can actually translate to 'godhead'.
