What does the English word deceive mean?

From our English dictionaries we find:

- (of a person) cause (someone) to believe something that is not true, typically in order to gain some personal advantage.
- failure to admit to oneself that something is true.

Deception is an act or statement which misleads, hides the truth, or promotes a belief, concept, or idea that is not true. It is often done for personal gain or advantage. Deception can involve dissimulation, propaganda, and sleight of hand, as well as distraction, camouflage, or concealment. Wikipedia

In the Old Testament YHWH warns us to not be deceived. Many Hebrew words are translated as 'deceive, deceived, deceiver and the same words are translated as 'error', 'wander', 'go astray' and what I find very interesting is same word is translated as 'sin through ignorance'.

H7683, H7684, H7686 and many others have the same root [AHLB 1463] all meaning to error or get it wrong. All deception had to be repented of and atonement made in order to have forgiveness.

AHLB 1463 לָלַט (לָטַט שִׁגָּה) ac: Err co: ? ab: Error: The pictograph ל is a picture of the two front teeth representing the idea of double, the ל is a picture of a foot representing the carrying of a burden. Combined these mean "double burden". When a work is found to be in error, the work must be redone. An error that is made out of ignorance or accident.
