

Love Good Hate Evil

Our Elohaym has a character that loves and hates just as we have in our character to love and hate, as we are made in His image. That character has been there from the creation of Adam, it did not come as a result of the fall of Adam. Adam should have hated what the devil told Eve, he should have hated what Eve had done. This begs the question what did Adam love more?

We, as offspring of Adam, have to ask ourselves that same question. What do we LOVE and what do we HATE? Just as our creator, there are things we need to love and things we need to hate. We need to love and hate these things with a fervent love and fervent hatred. There is no room for a lukewarm love or hatred; if we are lukewarm He will vehemently spit us out of His mouth like sour milk.

How do we overcome sin? When we turn our hearts and hate the evil as much as we love Him and want to go into the Kingdom. Our hatred of evil needs to be as hot as our creator's hatred of evil and when it is there is no way we can transgress and sin.

What to Love, with hot love, good, righteousness	What to Hate, with hot hatred, evil, unrighteousness

Conclusion:

As we walk with our Elohaym we have to have as much hatred for the evil as we have love of the good. If we are lukewarm towards the evil and the unrighteousness then that evil can creep in our lives and lead us astray, so we MUST have a fervent hatred of those things just as our creator hates them.

As we walk we must have a burning hot love for YHWH and His law, the 10 Commandments, we have to love His righteousness and despise the doctrines of men. We cannot change, alter nor do away with any of the 10 Commandments. If we REALLY love our Creator then we WILL DO His commandments. We are told to put on the new man, which was created in YHWH image, in righteousness and true holiness, the Adam before the fall. Let us go from this day on in righteousness and sin no more.
